LUFTWAFFE GUN CAMERA FOOTAGE VOL. 1

Air Warriors

Vol. 2

The National Combat History Archive is dedicated to the aggregation, preservation and dissemination of military combat and military related film, photographs and personal memoirs. The mission of the National Combat History Archive is to make this important history accessible to researchers, educators, students and historians so that the record of America's rich military heritage will be preserved for generations to come. Over 90 min of rare interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII! This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: Interrogation of Enemy Airmen - This World War II film tells the inside story about tactics and techniques that were used to interrogate German, Japanese and Italian downed flight crews. The film identifies and presents the different and most effective techniques used to elicit critical information from enemy airmen to learn more about bases, equipment and capabilities. Luftwaffe Gun Camera Footage Vol. 1 - This collection of 57 gun camera films is presented here for the first time in chronological order with selected footage enhanced by slow motion and close ups to put you face to face with the action. This movie contains combat films of the Luftwaffe against US P-38, P-47, P-51, B-17, B-24 and Russian LaGG-5, Yankovlev Yak 9 fighters, and Llyushin DB-3 bombers.
