The National Combat History Archive is dedicated to the aggregation, preservation and dissemination of military combat and military related film, photographs and personal memoirs. The mission of the National Combat History Archive is to make this important history accessible to researchers, educators, students and historians so that the record of America's rich military heritage will be preserved for generations to come. Over 90 min of rare interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII! This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: Lost Luftwaffe Films - Compiled entirely from German Luftwaffe film footage, this film is a rare glimpse behind the German wall. The film begins with a group of Luftwaffe officers being briefed and dismissed for duty. As their leader speaks to them, we see close-ups of pilots are seen. German News Reel Footage & Behind Nazi Guns - During WWII the Germans, under the supervision of Josef Goebbels, made sure that their cameras went anywhere that could be exploited for propaganda purposes. This rare footage offers unique glimpses of Nazi Germany's most important personalities. The legendary weapons their armaments industry produced powered the German military machine. This documentary takes the viewer into the weapons plants and shows how these fearsome weapons of war were made. Air Raid Alarm - A German air raid educational movie
